

Treasure Hunt answers

1. The symbol is under the stone seats in the porch at entrance to church
2. Dedicated to Rev. Donald Bishop on the 25th anniversary of his induction as Vicar of Bodicote
3. 8am (see service details on new noticeboard outside church)
4. The Old Barley Mow (opposite the Spice Room) Although several people put The Bakers Arms (where The Spice Room is now), this is not a 'home'
5. 7am
6. Milk was my intended answer, but I also allowed water (both fit with jug and bottle) The other common answer was beer, but this will be served in The Plough!
7. Goose Lane (from the nursery rhyme Goosey, Goosey Gander)
8. Reaper's Cottage, no.15
9. Mrs Julie Ann Brain (Horse and Jockey)
10. Mary's Cottage no.23 (from the nursery rhyme Mary had a little lamb)
11. Horseshoe
12. Long vehicles
13. 2 cats on the roof of Durrell Cottage (Gerald Durrell of the books, TV series and Jersey Zoo fame)
14. Grasmere
15. I accepted anything which fitted with rhubarb and crumble, such as cream or custard
16. 2 little pigs were frightened away – just 1 left at no. 10
17. Deer (Deer's Close off Lower Close)
18. B3 service doesn't run on a Sunday
19. Fred Walton and Bill Hitchman
20. 7, but I also allowed 13 as there was some argument as to where the front of Fairholme was!

There were 6 completely correct entries and the winner, drawn from these, was Ethan Maylor.

Thank you all for taking part.

If anyone has any ideas of something similar which we could tie in with a BBQ next year, do let us know.
