This week we pray for all who live or work in Merlin Close and Ash Drive.

There is still time to get your tickets for our next fundraiser, the concert given by Anjuli Mehta-Browne in church at 7.30pm on Friday 21st July. Tickets cost £10 each, to include a glass of wine or soft drink are now available from Sarah, Nick and Helen Hall or book yours at office.bodicotechurch@gmail.com. Anjuli is a highly talented professional soprano, classical singer and teacher. She will be singing a mix of opera and songs, including music written by Mozart, Schumann and Gershwin. There will be a raffle on the night. Do invite your friends and come along – there will also be tickets available at the door.

Magazine delivery cover Due to it being peak holiday season, we are expecting some of our usual volunteers who deliver the magazine to be away for the next few editions. If you are able to help cover for them, please let Ann know via the office email or speak to Sarah or Nick. Thank you.

Magazines should be delivered to church this coming Friday (21st). If possible, please try to collect yours before the evening concert – Ann will email around once they are ready.

For your diary: More details of these events will be in our August/September parish magazine, available next week.
